RE: Connecticut First Lego League Competition

Welcome to the Connecticut FLL Competition scheduled for Sunday, December 11, 2005 8:00 AM, at Central Connecticut State University, Kaiser Gym. Our planning team has been hard at work preparing for your visit and like you, are nervous and excited about being part of this wonderful event. We ask your patience and understanding as we host our seventh annual competition.

The tournament is once again being sponsored by the Connecticut Department of Education Office of Technology Education, Central Connecticut State University School of Technology, the Science Center of Connecticut, The Connecticut Technology Education Association (CTEA), and the Connecticut Technology Student Association (CT-TSA).

PLEASE NOTE:

1. All teams will be required to pay the $50.00 Regional Competition Registration fee upon arrival at CCSU. We ask that you pay by check made payable to Central Connecticut State University.
2. A completed Team Registration Form is required at check-in.
3. The Connecticut competition will be run adhering to all the rules and regulations published in the 2005 rule book as well as any associated updates from the FLL organization.
4. All teams are required to bring all materials needed to compete including a computer, a 25 foot extension cord and a surge protector for your computer.
5. Lunch will be provided, at Kaiser Gym, for the team advisor and 10 student team members.
6. In case of inclement weather, delays or cancellation, information will be available by calling 860-713-6756.
